FREE EVERY TUESDAY
LITCHFIELD COUNTY, CONNECTICUT

Litchfield County, close up. The waterways, the ecology, the seasons, the people. A weekly letter for anyone who wants to understand this place, not just visit it.

WHO READS IT

Two kinds of reader. Year-round residents of Litchfield County who want to know what is happening and why this place is the way it is. And the Litchfield-curious: NYC-area weekenders and prospective buyers who read the Ledger to understand the county before they commit to it.

Readers open it for the writing, not the listings. That is why they also read the sponsor block.

- A written sponsor block in the issue, in the Ledger's voice, with your photo and link
- Optional video or short-form embed
